Beat the Workshop

Beat the Workshop is a regular workshop series with some of the biggest stars in a discipline that is both art and sport - this time around it's Skank, Mancino and Sapa! No matter how old you are or what your skills are, come to us and benefit from the great knowledge of the world-class breakdancers, for whom gravity is no obstacle! Workshops are held periodically and include three one-hour classes, each with a different instructor.

The place is reserved after receiving payment for the workshop. Payment can be made by bank transfer. Sign up through the Strefa Zajęć site. More information on www.oko.com.pl

The opening of the "ReWizje" painting exhibition

"ReWizje" is a project created by ten former students of the European Academy of Arts in Warsaw who began their education at the Academy in 1997. The event provides an overview of the artists' achievements and work twenty years after their graduation. The project aims to show the change that has occurred in them over the years, the maturing of their mindset and their current work.

Artists: Kat Garstka, Paweł Myszka, Karolina Poszwald, Dorota Stelmaszczyk-Szwed, Karolina Bronarska-Strauss, Justyna Styszyńska, Anna Szymczyk, Martta Węg, Eliza Wolf, Ola (Olga) Wróbel.

The exhibition is open to visitors on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 10.00 to 13.00

Free entry!

Concert by Adam Strug and Monodia - Psalterz polski

Mikołaj Gomółka's Melodies for a Polish Psalter, published in 1580 in Kraków, is a collection of simple four-voice psalm arrangements translated by Jan Kochanowski. The concert will feature some of the compositions from this extensive collection. Monodia Polska is a singing group practicing old Polish religious and secular songs in melodic variants collected by Adam Strug, i. a. singer, instrumentalist and promoter of traditional music, in the Łomża and Kurpie region.

Concert by Oliwia Krettek with band and guests

Do dreams come true? The story of one of the Wasowski Vocal Studio students is a case in point. After ten years, Oliwia Krettek accidentally returned to singing, her passion, first by joining the All That Sound choir, then the Vocal Studio. In the meantime, together with the group Fanaberries, she has been developing original songs, which she will present during an atmospheric evening of live music. Oliwia will sing her favourite song covers mostly from the UK, including artists such as Radiohead, Coldplay and Anathema. She has also invited young, talented musicians who have found their second home in Poland: Olga Sychuk from Belarus (piano) and Kuban Turanbaev from Kyrgyzstan (guitar).

Polska z OFFu The Pau // Willa Kosmos

The OKO stage will rebel! If you think it's impossible to play a punk concert single-handedly, you haven't seen The Pau - there's so much punk in her heart that she could share it with several bands. But is it possible to meet (post)punk with a poetry slam halfway? The staff of Poznan's Villa Kosmos think it can - and prove it gladly, most recently with a single from their forthcoming second album. Come and rage against reality with the second part of the Polska z OFFu project!

8 Kobiet | OFELIA

Meet the host of the fourth concert to be held in the Ochota Cultural Centre's series "8 Women", OFELIA (Iga Krefft) - an actress who also fulfills herself as a vocalist captivating not only with her voice and unusual musical sensitivity.

In November 2019, she released her debut album "Ofelia". The release was promoted by the single "Tu", accompanied by an official music video and the piece "Dwa słowa". In June 2021, she released the single "Zakochana w bicie (Miranda)" announcing her second album entitled "Osium". The singer decided to present as many as eight of her musical incarnations, including the wounded Lisa, the bossy Miranda who listeners met in the first single, the androgynous Tamara, the sweet and salty Chloe, the wounded Terry... in other words, 8 Women!

The magic number 8 announces the infinity of what being a woman, a human being and a creator means. Let yourself be swept away by each of the new Ophelias!
